ANNUAL REPORT 2022

Dear Friends,

For families living on the edge of poverty, an unexpected expense can threaten their future in an instant. In 2022, many of our clients were just picking up the pieces from lost jobs and wages resulting from the pandemic when inflation caused basic needs costs to rise. For the last several years those living on the edge of poverty have not had a break as they moved from one challenge to the next. But because of you, people in need were able to find help and relief at CCSC.

CCSC was created in 1980 by six local churches with the vision of fulfilling the Church's call to meet the immediate needs of people in crisis. Today, CCSC is a coalition of 40 unique Christian congregations working together to serve our neighbors in need. Thanks to our member churches, volunteers and donors, last year hungry families received much-needed food and clothing; job seekers received training and coaching to help them achieve greater financial stability; and children received help at our Back To School and Jingle Bell Express events. Volunteers in our Louise J. Moran Vision Care Program screened a record-high number of low-income students so we could ensure they received the glasses they needed to learn in school.

Our new building continued to be a great asset as we continually found ways to better serve our clients in 2022. The Emergency Services team safely returned to in-person operations, allowing interviewers to take a deeper look at an individual's situation and find the most effective ways for CCSC to help. Our Clothing Pantry reopened, and CCSC's Workforce Development program expanded its offerings with a new volunteer Nurse Coach and additional computers in the JobNet Computer Lab.

"All of our work is possible because of you."

All of our work is possible because of you. We are grateful for the ways you equip CCSC to serve those in need with kindness and compassion.

In Christ,

On the cover: A dedicated group of volunteers display carrots harvested from the CCSC Garden. The Garden, which is maintained near CCSC's southwest food pantry, provides fresh vegetables and fruit to CCSC clients in need of emergency food. "It's always exciting to see that first sprout, blossom, or fruit that we have worked to produce, yet it is God who makes it grow," said volunteer Ron Smith, the CCSC Garden Lead. "To be able to experience God's wonderful creation along with such good friends—and to benefit those in need—is a blessing indeed."

CCSC's mission is to serve the poor, hungry, disabled and otherwise needy while respecting their religious, ethnic or cultural differences.

Who We Are

Clients access our three program areas to build brighter futures for their families:

BASIC NEEDS

We provide crisis relief for people struggling to make ends meet. We offer food packages for those facing hunger, and financial assistance for rent, utilities, and basic medical needs at two Emergency Services locations in central and southwest Houston.

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

We equip individuals to build greater financial stability.

JobNet prepares motivated job seekers through classes and coaching. Entrepreneurs receive hands-on vocational training through Martha's Way, a residential housekeeping training, and the Professional Home Caregiver Training Program. Both programs equip participants to start their own businesses and increase family income.

YOUTH PROGRAMS

We support children and their families with new school supplies and clothing through the Back To School program, and with Christmas toys, books and grocery gift cards at Jingle Bell Express. The Louise J. Moran Vision Care Program provides underserved students with vision screenings and brand-new glasses, increasing their enthusiasm and participation in the classroom.

OUR SERVICE AREA

CCSC's Basic Needs and Youth programs serve those living in a 34 zip code region,* including some of the most vulnerable neighborhoods of Houston. Many families in our service area struggle to afford everyday expenses, and an unexpected crisis can be financially devastating.

In 2022, inflation brought additional hardships to people living in or near poverty. But because of you, men and women can access help for basic needs, resources for their children, and programs to build financial stability.

**Workforce Development programs are not zip code restricted. During disasters such as extreme weather events or the COVID-19 pandemic, CCSC removes the zip code restriction for food packages in order to serve more families facing food insecurity.*

Meet Emanuel

Emanuel dreamed of one day opening his own food truck and being financially self-sufficient, but various hurdles were keeping him from reaching his goals. When he came to CCSC, he was working in health care, but his recently reduced hours weren't enough to cover his expenses for food and rent, and a necessary medical procedure had put him into debt. He knew he needed additional training to increase his skill set so he could achieve financial stability.

CCSC helped Emanuel with emergency food—a tremendous help when prices for basic needs began rising in 2022. “It helped me a lot,” Emanuel said. “Sometimes, if I didn't have food, I got it here and then headed to work.”

CCSC volunteers, who are trained to connect clients with additional resources at CCSC and in the community, told Emanuel about CCSC's JobNet resources, which include computer trainings and financial and career coaching. Emanuel was very stressed about his financial situation so when he learned about the opportunity to meet one-on-one with a personal financial coach, he jumped at the opportunity.

Over the next several months, Emanuel and his coach worked together weekly to find clarity on his financial situation, create a budget, and set specific actions to reduce his debt and save for his ultimate goal of opening a business. Within one month, Emanuel had reduced his expenses and opened a business savings account.

Today, thanks to his tenacity and the support of his CCSC financial coach, Emanuel's dream of opening a business is a reality: He is currently selling food from a gas station and has already hired two temporary staff. His savings account continues to grow and he is confidently making plans for his future.

“There are many opportunities at CCSC to learn more skills. Whatever you need, they help you.”

Emanuel came to CCSC searching for ways to increase his financial stability and help in pursuing his dream of opening his own business. Because of you, CCSC helped Emanuel form a financial plan to reduce his debt and pursue his goals. Today, Emanuel's savings are increasing and he has opened his new business.

Volunteer Spotlight

Meet Margaret and Steve

Margaret and Steve Weddle first began volunteering with CCSC 17 years ago with our Back To School and Jingle Bell Express programs. After their retirements, they became full-time volunteers who have helped to positively shape the CCSC programs they volunteer with—Margaret in the Garden and Steve in the JobNet Computer Lab.

Margaret has been instrumental in helping our Garden provide food to families in need. “Fresh produce shouldn’t be a luxury item, yet it is for people in tight financial situations,” Margaret said.

Steve has redesigned CCSC’s JobNet employment program’s Word, PowerPoint and Excel classes, making them more user-friendly, and developed an intermediate Excel class and skills assessments to ensure students get the most from JobNet classes.

“I love to teach and help people learn things that, at first, they think are difficult. It’s very satisfying to see clients learn to be proficient on a computer,” Steve said.

For their leadership, dedication and commitment to helping CCSC improve the lives of Houstonians in need, Margaret and Steve Weddle received a 2022 Houston

Texans-Community Coffee Community Quarterback award. The Community Quarterback awards, developed in partnership by United Way of Greater Houston and the Houston Texans, recognize individuals who go above and beyond in volunteer leadership.

“We are fortunate to work with the dedicated volunteers and staff at CCSC,” Steve said. “Bottom line, there are many people who would probably be jobless, in dire straits financially, or possibly even on the street homeless if it were not for the CCSC impact in their lives.”

Photo: CCSC supporters Margaret and Steve Weddle love giving back to the community. After their retirements, both began volunteering more regularly with CCSC: Steve teaches Microsoft classes to job seekers in JobNet and Margaret helps tend the CCSC Garden. Each has positively impacted the CCSC program they volunteer with.

With your support, CCSC helps meet the immediate needs of people in crisis.

BASIC NEEDS

BLESS (IN-KIND GIFTS)

Baker Botts L.L.P. provided pro bono legal services; Fil Nenna provided pro bono photography; and churches, organizations, and individuals organized and contributed to food and clothing drives benefitting our pantries.

We also thank all donors who made financial gifts to CCSC through church congregations.

Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of this list. We apologize if any errors or omissions have occurred. We are grateful for the many generous donors who gave to CCSC in 2022.

Take Action

VISIT

We would love to host you at our new building for a tour. You will see our programs in action and learn more about how CCSC helps those in need.

Give us a call at 713-961-3993 to set up a tour.

VOLUNTEER

CCSC is powered by its volunteers. In 2022, 1,538 volunteers distributed food, interviewed clients in need of financial assistance, taught employment programs, and more. Email volunteer@ccschouston.org and make a difference in the lives of Houstonians needing help.

GIVE

We pledge diligent stewardship of the generous financial gifts that you, our donors and partners, make to improve the lives of Houston's most vulnerable. Your gifts make it possible for individuals to receive help when they need it most, and set families onto a path of financial stability. We invite you to give to CCSC and help our neighbors in need.

You can make a gift today at ccschouston.org/give or by mailing a check to CCSC, P.O. Box 27924, Houston, TX 77227.

*Feeding Hunger,
Fostering Hope,
Furthering Success*

CCSC's mission is to serve the poor, hungry, disabled and otherwise needy while respecting their religious, ethnic or cultural differences.
